

Management of Aging Services Online Master's Program

MASS-SALC Foundation Scholarship

Massachusetts Senior and Assisted Living Communities Foundation, Inc.

Application and Instructions

Gerontology Department
John W. McCormack Graduate School of Policy and Global Studies
University of Massachusetts Boston

Scholarship Eligibility Requirements

To be eligible for the scholarship, you must first apply and matriculate into the Management of Aging Services program at UMass Boston.

Applicants must meet the following criteria

- Employed by a Mass-ALA member assisted living provider and reside in Massachusetts
- Earned a Bachelor's degree
- Completed the UMass Boston graduate application including undergraduate transcripts, reference letters, personal statement, and non-refundable application fee;
<https://www.umb.edu/admissions/grad/apply>
- Accepted and matriculated into the Management of Aging Services Master's program

Scholarship Application Documents

(to be sent to MASS-SALC Foundation, copies permissible)

- Scholarship application coversheet
- Copy of UMass Boston application including personal statement, reference letters, and transcripts
- Letter of support from employer
- Resume

Full scholarship includes tuition. Student is responsible for books, fees and other materials. Scholarship award is contingent upon acceptance and matriculation into Management of Aging Services program.

MA-SALC Foundation

Application Coversheet

Management of Aging Services Master's Degree

Name: _____

Title: _____

Company or Community: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____

Phone: _____

Undergraduate Degree & Major:

Please include this coversheet, along with all required documentation and send to:

MASS-SALC FOUNDATION, INC.

c/o Mass-ALA

465 Waverley Oaks Road, Suite 300

Waltham, MA 02452

Scholarship Agreement

By my signature below:

I attest that all documentation is authentic and has not been altered in any way

Signed: _____

Date: _____

Management of Aging Services Program

Training Tomorrow's Leaders in Aging

Earn your Master's in Gerontology, Management of Aging Services at the University of Massachusetts Boston. Directed by former MA Secretary of Elder Affairs Lillian Glickman and Assistant Secretary Ellen Birchander, the program provides students with expertise in the field of aging along with management skills needed to become a leader in this rapidly growing field.

Use in work tomorrow what you learn in class today....

An applied approach: Faculty members have extensive, practical work experience in their academic areas of expertise. Students also learn from each other through online interactive sessions and group projects.

- Completely online
- 12 courses/36 credits
- Affordable
- Full time or part time
- Supportive learning environment
- Interactive
- Flexible
- Innovative curriculum
- High alumni success rates
- Post-graduation career support

To apply, students must submit:

- Online application
- Personal statement
- College transcripts
- References
- GRE scores are not required

Application deadlines:

- June 1 for fall admission
- November 1 for spring admission

Learn more at gerontology.umb.edu

Gerontology Department
John W. McCormack Graduate School of Policy and Global Studies
University of Massachusetts Boston

